NEWSLETTER 1989/90.3 (February)

The Society for Ancient Greek Philosophy invites you to attend the Society's meeting with the Pacific Division of the American Philosophical Association for 1989/90.

Ancient Ethics

Chair: Julius Moravcsik, Stanford
Giovanni Ferrari, Berkeley, "Akrasia as Neurosis in Plato"
Stephen White, U. of Texas, Austin, "Ergon meets the Stoics: Some Peripatetic Uses of Oikeiosis"

These papers are or should be included with this newsletter, if you have paid dues for the 1989/90 academic year. Papers for the Central Division meeting will be distributed in three or four weeks, again to those who have paid dues. They will include:
Constantine Georgiadis, McMaster U., "Aristotle on Unity: Metaphysics Delta 6."
Laura Westra, Auburn, "Plotinus on Freedom, Creativity and the One"

To determine your dues status, look at the mailing label on the envelope this came in; the last year for which you have paid dues should be noted on it. If you have never paid dues, or have not done so for several years, there may not be a notation. You are of course welcome to rejoin.

Dues are $5 per year ($7.50 Canadian), payable by check made out to SAGP (or Foundation 386). If you have not yet sent your dues for the 89/90 academic year, we urge you to send your check now. The sooner we receive your dues, the sooner you will get your papers, including those presented in December:
Leonardo Taran, Columbia, "Heraclitus: The River Fragments"
Mitchell Miller, Vassar, "Unity and Logos in Plato's Eleatic Dialogues"
Susan Sauvage, Harvard, "Aristotle, Teleology, and Reduction"
Steven Strange, Pittsburgh, "Plotinus on the Articulation of Being"

The Ninth Annual SAGP/SSIPS Conference, KNOWLEDGE, BEAUTY, AND HUMAN RELATIONS in Antiquity and in Christian, Jewish, and Islamic Philosophy, is planned for October 26, 27, 28, 1990, at Baruch CUNY. Papers are invited from the members of SAGP; please send either paper or abstract to A. Preus or P. Morewedge by June 1, 1990.

INTERNATIONAL PLATO SOCIETY
There have been two Symposia Platonica: 1986 in Mexico; 1989 in Perugia. At the second meeting, the International Plato Society was formed to organise subsequent Symposia Platonica, to publish the Proceedings, and to compose and circulate to members an annual bibliographical bulletin about current or impending publications on Plato throughout the world. Full membership is restricted to those who have published at least one substantial article, or a doctoral dissertation, on Plato; associate membership is available to those working towards their doctorate or equivalent. A single subscription of $30 US covers the three years until the next Symposium. The elected executive committee consists of Christopher Rowe (Chairman, Bristol), Luc Brisson (Paris), Conrado Eggers Lan (Buenos Aires), Shinro Kato (Tokyo), Tom Robinson (Toronto), Livio Rossetti (Perugia), and Thomas Szlezak (Würzburg). The next Symposium, on the Politicus, will be held in Bristol, England, in late summer of 1992.

Applications for membership should be directed to Christopher Rowe, Dept. of Classics and Archaeology, U. Bristol, 11 Woodland Road, Bristol BS8 1TB, England. Details of publications for inclusion in the bibliographical bulletin should also be sent to the same address.
