SAGP Newsletter 2001.4 (May)

Anthony Preus
You are invited to attend the meeting of the Society with the Central Division of the American Philosophical Association, Friday, May 4, 7 p.m. in Greenway J of the Hyatt Regency in Minneapolis.

Plato
Chair: Eve Cole, University of Minnesota, Duluth
Roslyn Weiss, Lehigh Univ., “Oh Brother! The Fraternity of Rhetoric and Philosophy in Plato’s Gorgias”
Gene Fendt, U. of Nebraska, Kearney, “Philosophy as Liturgical Action: An Essay on Plato’s Politics”

These papers are (or should be) included with this newsletter if you have paid dues for 00/1. Your dues status may be determined from the mailing label on the envelope.

SAGP DUES
Dues are $10 per year US; $15 Canadian (but we would prefer $10 US from our Canadian members!). Members outside North America should contribute $15 US to (more or less) cover the cost of mailings. Make out your check to SAGP. We honor multi-year dues payments. If you are paid up on your dues, the number 00 or a bit higher appears on the label. “$00” implies participation in the SAGP/SSIPS meeting last October, and has no implication for dues-paying. The letter in the selection code indicates your voting constituency. It is now possible to pay dues by Visa or Mastercard. This is intended as a convenience for persons outside the US who do not have US checking accounts. Contact apareus@binghamton.edu for a payment form (can be sent as an attachment or faxed).

SAGP Speaker Policy
The Society for Ancient Greek Philosophy sponsors sessions with the annual meetings of the Eastern, Central, and Pacific Divisions of the American Philosophical Association. In addition, SAGP has since 1980 participated in a joint meeting with the Society for the Study of Islamic Philosophy and Science and several other groups, and since 1996 with the International Association for Greek Philosophy; occasionally the SAGP meets with various other groups. For many years we met with the American Philological Association, and we are attempting to reinstate that relationship. In order to do that, it will be important that people who are members of the Society and of the American Philological Association respond to invitations to submit papers for that meeting.

Procedure
Those wishing to present a paper at any meeting of the SAGP are requested to contact A. Preus, Secretary SAGP, Philosophy, Binghamton University, 13902-6000; fax 607-777-2734; apareus@binghamton.edu. Submitters should include their name and address directly below the title of the paper on a separate title page, and nowhere else; that allows for anonymous review by the Program Committee. Submitters should also include a cover letter indicating the meeting(s) of the Society at which they would like (be willing) to present the paper. Deadlines for receipt are as follows: February 1 for Eastern Division meeting following December (seven copies), or (potentially) the meeting of the American Philological Association somewhere around January 1. June 1 for the October SAGP/SSIPS program (one copy is sufficient). September 1 for Pacific and Central subsequent Spring (seven copies). These deadlines reflect the necessity for a month turnaround to the Program Committee and a month to put the program together. Submitters should expect a response about six weeks after each of the deadline dates. The members of the Program Committee are: the President (Fred Miller) and Secretary (A. Preus), ex officio; John Anton, Elizabeth Asmis, Patricia Curd, Julius Moravcsik, and Thomas M. Robinson.

EMAIL ADDRESSES
We have compiled an “mailing list” of email addresses of members and friends of the Society. The major use of this list is to distribute rapidly calls for papers and announcements of conferences. We have sent out a couple such announcements in recent months. If you have not gotten those, you’re not on the list. If you would like to be included on this list, please send a message to apreus@binghamton.edu; if you would NOT like to be included, please send appropriate notification to the same address.

THE JOURNAL OF NEOPLATONIC STUDIES

The Journal of Neoplatonic Studies Volumes I, II, III, IV, V, VI, and VII.1 have been published and are available. VII.2 is in production. Subscriptions are a very reasonable $15 per year (two issues). You can now conjoin your subscription with your membership in ISNS; that membership is an additional $5 per year. So if you write your check for $20, you pay one year membership in ISNS, and subscribe for one year to JNS (multi-year subscriptions and/or memberships are welcome, but be specific what you want). Write your check to “JNS” and send it to A. Preus, Philosophy, Binghamton University, 13902-6000. Please specify the volume(s) for which you are subscribing.

Submissions of papers: two copies (and a diskette please!) to John Finamore, Classics, University of Iowa, Iowa City, IA 52242; john-finamore@uiowa.edu. Advertisements etc.: P. Morewedge, IGCS, Binghamton Univ, 13902; pmorewed@binghamton.edu.
