NEWSLETTER 2001/2.2

You are invited to attend the meeting of the Society with Eastern Division of the American Philosophical Assoc., at the Atlanta Hilton; Friday, Dec. 28, 6-8 p.m. in the Director’s Room.

Chair: Anthony Preus, Binghamton University
Robert L. Gallagher, St. Basil College, “The Aim of Socrates’ Arguments in the Republic”
Thomas Kiefer, University of Nebraska-Lincoln, “Aristotle on Knowledge, Nous and the Problems of Necessary Truth”

We are sorry that this program was not included in the official Eastern Division program mailed out in September. The papers are included, if you have paid your dues for 2001/2. If they are not included, read on:

SAGP DUES
Dues are $10 per year US; $15 Canadian (but we would prefer $10 US from our Canadian members!). Members outside North America should contribute $15 US to (more or less) cover the cost of mailings. Make out your check to SAGP. We honor multi-year dues payments. If you are paid up on your dues, the number 02 or a bit higher appears on the label. The letter in the selection code indicates your voting constituency. It is now possible to pay dues by Visa or Mastercard. This is intended as a convenience for persons outside the US who do not have US checking accounts. If you need to pay by credit card, please contact apreus@binghamton.edu for a payment form (can be sent as an email attachment or faxed). Those who pay by check do not need a payment form—just mail the check and your preferred mailing address to SAGP, Philosophy, Binghamton University, Binghamton NY 13902-6000.

SAGP Speaker Policy
The Society for Ancient Greek Philosophy sponsors sessions with the annual meetings of the Eastern, Central, and Pacific Divisions of the American Philosophical Association. In addition, SAGP has since 1980 participated in a joint meeting with the Society for the Study of Islamic Philosophy and Science and several other groups, and since 1996 with the International Association for Greek Philosophy; occasionally the SAGP meets with various other groups. For many years we met with the American Philological Association, and we are attempting to reinstate that relationship. In order to do that, it will be important that people who are members of the Society and of the American Philological Association respond to invitations to submit papers for that meeting.

Procedure
Those wishing to present a paper at any meeting of the SAGP are requested to contact A. Preus, Secretary SAGP, Philosophy, Binghamton University, 13902-6000; fax 607-777-2734; apreus@binghamton.edu. Submitters should include their name and address directly below the title of the paper on a separate title page, and nowhere else; that allows for anonymous review by the Program Committee. Submitters should also include a cover letter indicating the meeting(s) of the Society at which they would like (be willing) to present the paper. Deadlines for receipt are as follows:

February 1 for Eastern Division meeting following December (seven copies), or (potentially) the meeting of the American Philological Association somewhere around January 1.

June 1 for the October SAGP/SSIPS program (one copy is sufficient).

September 1 for Pacific and Central subsequent Spring (seven copies).
These deadlines reflect the necessity for a month turnaround to the Program Committee and a month to put the program together. Submitters should expect a response about six weeks after each of the deadline dates. The members of the Program Committee are: the President (Fred Miller) and Secretary (A. Preus), ex officio; John Anton, Elizabeth Asmis, Patricia Curd, Julius Moravcsik, and Thomas M. Robinson.

Program Committee
During the Spring semester we conducted an election for Pacific Division representative on the Program Committee. The vote was very close among several candidates, but in the end Julius Moravcsik was re-elected to the position that he has held for a number of years.

EMAIL ADDRESSES
We have compiled an “mailing list” of email addresses of members and friends of the Society. The major use of this list is to distribute rapidly calls for papers and announcements of conferences. We have sent out a couple such announcements in recent months. If you have not gotten those, you’re not on the list. If you would like to be included on this list, please send a message to apreus@binghamton.edu; if you would NOT like to be included, please send appropriate notification to the same address.

THE JOURNAL OF NEOPLATONIC STUDIES
The Journal of Neoplatonic Studies Volumes I, II, III, IV, V, VI, and VII have been published and are available. VIII.1 is in preparation. Individual subscriptions are a very reasonable $15 per year (two issues); subscribers outside North America need to include an additional $15 to pay for airmail postage. You can now conjoin your subscription with your membership in ISNS; that membership is an additional $5 per year. So if you write your check for $20 ($35 outside North America), you pay one year membership in ISNS, and subscribe for one year to JNS (multi-year subscriptions and/or memberships are welcome, but be specific what you want). Write your check to “JNS” and send it to A. Preus, Philosophy, Binghamton University, 13902-6000. Please specify the volume(s) for which you are subscribing.

Submissions of papers: two copies (and a diskette please!) to John Finamore, Classics, University of Iowa, Iowa City, IA 52242; john-finamore@uiowa.edu. Advertisements etc.: P. Morewedge, IGCS, Binghamton Univ, 13902; pmorewed@binghamton.edu.
