You are cordially invited to attend the SAGP session at the APA, Central Division meeting, Friday, April 25, 2003, 7-10 p.m. in the Superior Room of the Renaissance Cleveland:

Chair: A. Preus, Binghamton University
Andrea Veltman, University of Wisconsin, “Civic Justice in Plato's Republic and Phaedo”
Angela Curran, Franklin & Marshall University, “‘As It Were’ Deformed: Some Puzzles on the ‘Female Principle’ in Aristotle's Generation of Animals”

Those who have paid 2002/3 dues to SAGP will receive these papers shortly, or may have received them already.

SAGP DUES

Dues are $10 per year US; $15 Canadian (but we would prefer $10 US from our Canadian members). Members outside North America should contribute $15 US to (more or less) cover the cost of mailings. Make out your check to SAGP. We honor multi-year dues payments. If you need to pay by credit card, please contact apreus@binghamton.edu for a payment form (can be sent as an email attachment or faxed). Those who pay by check do not need a payment form—just mail the check and your preferred mailing address to SAGP, Philosophy, Binghamton University, Binghamton NY 13902-6000. If you are getting this newsletter without the papers, and thus you are not a member, you should be advised that we will be cutting that list rather seriously during the course of this year. If you wish to continue hearing from us, you should either join, or at least be sure that you are on our email list (see below). Alternatively you could be sure to visit our web site from time to time: http://sagp.binghamton.edu/

SAGP Speaker Policy

The Society for Ancient Greek Philosophy sponsors sessions with the annual meetings of the Eastern, Central, and Pacific Divisions of the American Philosophical Association, and the annual meeting of the American Philologial Association (restarting in January 2004). Occasionally the SAGP meets with various other groups. Those wishing to present a paper at any meeting of the SAGP are requested to contact A. Preus, Secretary SAGP, Philosophy, Binghamton U, 13902-6000; fax 607-777-2734; apreus@binghamton.edu. Submitters should include their name and address directly below the title of the paper on a separate title page, and nowhere else; that allows for anonymous review by the Program Committee. Submitters should also include a cover letter indicating the meeting(s) of the Society at which they would like (be willing) to present the paper. If you submit in paper copy, we would like to have 7 copies. You may also submit electronically. Deadlines for receipt are as follows:
February 1 for Eastern Division meeting following December or the American Philological Association meeting the following January.

April 1 for the annual SAGP/SSIPS meeting, to be held in 2003 at Fordham University in New York City. An abstract, by email, is sufficient, but the April 1 deadline is important. SEE FURTHER INFO ON THIS BELOW!

September 1 for Pacific and Central subsequent Spring.

These deadlines reflect the necessity for a month turnaround to the Program Committee and a month to put the program together. Submitters should expect a response about six weeks after each of the deadline dates. The members of the Program Committee are: the President (Fred Miller) and Secretary (A. Preus), ex officio; John Anton, Elizabeth Asmis, Patricia Curd, Julius Moravcsik, and Thomas M. Robinson.

EMAIL ADDRESSES

We have compiled an “mailing list” of email addresses of members and friends of the Society. The major use of this list is to distribute calls for papers and announcements of conferences. If you got this message, you’re on the list.

THE JOURNAL OF NEOPLATONIC STUDIES

The Journal of Neoplatonic Studies VIII.2 will appear very soon. Subscriptions are still just $15 per year. Send subscriptions to A. Preus, Philosophy, Binghamton University, Binghamton, NY 13902-6000, check made out to “JNS”, with your preferred postal address please. Submissions of papers are invited: two copies (and a diskette please!) to Daryl Tress, Philosophy, Fordham University, Bronx, NY 10458. You can send an initial electronic submission to tress@fordham.edu, but in view of the problems with electronic transmission of Greek text, for example, hard copy and a diskette (in Word, if possible) are necessary.

Boston Area Colloquium in Ancient Philosophy

You can get the entire schedule of all philosophical presentations in the Boston area at: http://people.brandeis.edu/~rind/calendar.html.

31st Annual Conference on Value Inquiry, “The History of Value Inquiry”

Heraclides of Pontus: June 25-28, 2003.

Project Theophrastus is sponsoring a conference on the philosopher Heraclides of Pontus, University of Leeds, June 25-28, 2003. Eckart Schütrumpf is preparing an edition and translation of the sources for the life and thought of Heraclides, to be made available to participants in the conference. Interested persons should contact Dr. E.E. Pender, School of Classics, University of Leeds, Leeds LS2 9JT, England: email e.e.pender@leeds.ac.uk. 15th International Conference on Greek Philosophy on the topic Philosophy and Science in the Greco-Roman World.
