SAGP Newsletter 2004.3 (April)

Anthony Preus
This is the email version of the “Central” Newsletter.

NEWSLETTER 2003/4.3

You are cordially invited to attend the SAGP session at the APA Central Division meeting, Saturday, April 24, 7-10 p.m. in Private Dining Room 5 (Third Floor) of the Palmer House Hilton Hotel, Chicago, IL:

Ancient Ethical Theory
Chair: Tony Preus, Binghamton U.
Lee Franklin, U. at Albany, “Techne and Teleology in Plato’s Gorgias”
Erik Wielenberg, DePauw U., “Egoism and Eudaimonia - Maximization in the Nicomachean Ethics”
Margaret Graver, Dartmouth, “Stoics on the Differentiation of Character”

SAGP/SSIPS 2004
SAGP meets annually with the Society for the Study of Islamic Philosophy and Science, and other groups. In 2004 we will again meet at Fordham University (the program of that meeting can be examined in the archives on the SAGP website). This year’s dates are October 22, 23, 24, 2004. We invite submissions for the 2004 meeting, with an extended deadline of May 15, 2004. We prefer that submissions be forwarded to apreus@binghamton.edu or tress@fordham.edu as abstracts attached to an email message, preferably written in Word. If that is not possible for you, please contact us so that we can decide on the best way to submit. Please include your postal address and your academic affiliation in your cover letter!

SAGP DUES
Dues are $10 per year US; $15 Canadian. Members outside North America should contribute $15 US to (more or less) cover the cost of mailings. Make out your check to SAGP. We honor multi-year dues payments. If you need to pay by credit card, please contact apreus@binghamton.edu for a payment form (can be sent as an email attachment or faxed). Those who pay by check do not need a payment form—just mail the check and your preferred mailing address to SAGP, Philosophy, Binghamton University, Binghamton NY 13902-6000. If you are getting this newsletter without the papers, and thus you are not a member, you should be advised that we are cutting that list rather seriously. If you wish to continue hearing from us, you should either join, or at least be sure that you are on our email list (see below). Alternatively you could be sure to visit our web site from time to time: http://sagp.Binghamton.edu, although we are not always all that diligent about keeping the site up to date.

SAGP Speaker Policy
The Society for Ancient Greek Philosophy sponsors sessions with the annual meetings of the Eastern, Central, and Pacific Divisions of the American Philosophical Association, and the annual meeting of the American Philological Association. Occasionally the SAGP meets with various other groups. Those wishing to present a paper at any meeting of the SAGP are requested to contact apreus@binghamton.edu.

Submitters should include their name and address directly below the title of the paper on a separate title page, and nowhere else; that allows for anonymous review by the Program Committee. Submitters should also include a cover indicating the meeting(s) of the Society at which they would like, or be willing, to present the paper. We very much prefer electronic submissions; make the email message itself the “cover letter”, and attach the paper. We prefer attachments in Word; if you have some other program that you want to use, please contact apreus@binghamton.edu first. A word to the wise – electronic transmission tends to garble Greek, so you are best off transliterating everything when you submit.

If you must submit in paper copy, we require 7 copies of the paper.

February 1 for Eastern Division meeting following December or the American Philological Association meeting the following January.

April 1 for the annual SAGP/SSIPS meeting, held in October of each year. An abstract, by email, is sufficient, but the April 1 deadline is important. 2004 deadline extended to May 15!

September 1 for Pacific and Central subsequent Spring.

These deadlines reflect the necessity for a month turnaround to the Program Committee and a month to put the program together. Submitters should expect a response about six weeks after each of the deadline dates. The members of the Program Committee are: the President (Fred Miller) and Secretary (A. Preus), ex officio; John Anton, Elizabeth Asmis, Patricia Curd, Julius Moravcsik, and Thomas M. Robinson.

EMAIL ADDRESSES
We have compiled an “mailing list” of email addresses of members and friends of the Society. The major use of this list is to distribute calls for papers and announcements of conferences. If you got this message, you’re on the list. You might want to encourage your colleagues and friends to get on the list, since it’s the major way that we distribute Calls for Papers and other information about conferences in ancient philosophy.
