SAGP/SSIPS 2004
SAGP meets annually with the Society for the Study of Islamic Philosophy and Science, and other groups. In 2003 we met at Fordham University (the program of that meeting can be examined in the archives on the SAGP website); we hope to meet there again in 2004. We invite submissions for the 2004 meeting, with a deadline of April 1, 2004. We prefer that submissions be forwarded to apreus@binghamton.edu or tress@fordham.edu as abstracts attached to an email message, preferably written in Word. If that is not possible for you, please contact us so that we can decide on the best way to submit.
SAGP DUES
Dues are $10 per year US; $15 Canadian (but we would prefer $10 US from our Canadian members).Members outside North America should contribute $15 US to (more or less) cover the cost of mailings.Make out your check to SAGP. We honor multi-year dues payments. If you need to pay by credit card,please contact apreus@binghamton.edu for a payment form (can be sent as an email attachment or faxed).Those who pay by check do not need a payment form—just mail the check and your preferred mailingaddress to SAGP, Philosophy, Binghamton University, Binghamton NY 13902-6000. If you are getting thisnewsletter without the papers, and thus you are not a member, you should be advised that we are cuttingthat list rather seriously. If you wish to continue hearing from us, you should either join, or at least be surethat you are on our email list (see below). Alternatively you could be sure to visit our web site from time totime: http://sagp.Binghamton.edu/

SAGP Speaker Policy
The Society for Ancient Greek Philosophy sponsors sessions with the annual meetings of the Eastern,Central, and Pacific Divisions of the American Philosophical Association, and the annual meeting of theAmerican Philological Association. Occasionally the SAGP meets with various other groups. Thosewishing to present a paper at any meeting of the SAGP are requested to contact apreus@binghamton.edu.Submitters should include their name and address directly below the title of the paper on aseparate title page, and nowhere else; that allows for anonymous review by the Program Committee.Submitters should also include a cover indicating the meeting(s) of the Society at which they would like, orbe willing, to present the paper. We very much prefer electronic submissions; make the email message itselfthe “cover letter”, and attach the paper. We prefer attachments in Word; if you have some other programthat you want to use, please contact apreus@binghamton.edu first. A word to the wise – electronic transmission tends to garble Greek, so you are best off transliterating anything when you submit.

If you must submit in paper copy, we require 7 copies of the paper.

February 1 for Eastern Division meeting following December or the American Philological Associationmeeting the following January.

April 1 for the annual SAGP/SSIPS meeting, held in October of each year. An abstract, by email, issufficient, but the April 1 deadline is important.

September 1 for Pacific and Central subsequent Spring.

These deadlines reflect the necessity for a month turnaround to the Program Committee and a month to putthe program together. Submitters should expect a response about six weeks after each of the deadline dates.
The members of the Program Committee are: the President (Fred Miller) and Secretary (A. Preus), exofficio; John Anton, Elizabeth Asmis, Patricia Curd, Julius Moravcsik, and Thomas M. Robinson.

EMAIL ADDRESSES
We have compiled an “mailing list” of email addresses of members and friends of the Society. The majoruse of this list is to distribute calls for papers and announcements of conferences. If you have not gottensuch messages from us, you’re not on the list. If you would like to be included on this list, please send amessage to apreus@binghamton.edu. This is strongly recommended, because Newsletters do not includemost of the information about conferences, calls for papers, and so on; those are sent out to the email list;furthermore, we’re reducing our Newsletter-only mailings (information mailings to non-members).
