Daniel Propson, Wayne State U., "Forget Anamnesis"

If you have not received these papers separately, it probably means that you are not currently a member of the Society. To remedy that lamentable state of affairs, see below.

And to the 2013 meeting with the Pacific Division Program, San Francisco, March 27-30

Chair: Alexander Mourelatos, University of Texas at Austin

SAGP Speaker Policy

The Society for Ancient Greek Philosophy sponsors sessions with the annual meetings of the Eastern, Central, and Pacific Divisions of the American Philosophical Association, and the annual meeting of the American Philological Association. There is also an annual meeting with the Society for the Study of Islamic Philosophy and Science and other groups. Occasionally the SAGP meets with various other societies. Those wishing to present a paper at any meeting of the SAGP are requested to contact apreus@binghamton.edu. Membership in SAGP is required for consideration of papers by the SAGP program committees.

Submitters of papers for the meetings with the two APAs should include their name and address directly below the title of the paper on a separate title page, and nowhere else; that allows for anonymous review by the Program Committee. Submitters should also include a cover message indicating the meeting(s) of the Society at which they would like, or be willing, to present the paper. We very much prefer electronic submissions; make the email message itself the “cover page”, and attach the paper. We prefer attachments in Word (“.doc” or “.docx”) or “Rich Text Format” (“.RTF”); if you have some other program that you want to use, please contact apreus@binghamton.edu first. NOT PDF! A word to the wise – electronic transmission tends to garble Greek (because not all the reviewers have the same Greek fonts installed), so please transliterate. The Program Committee has requested that submissions be limited to 3000 words MAX, and suggests that submissions less than 1000 words are too short to be evaluated effectively. Accepted papers may be revised up to a max of 5000 words for distribution, and real Greek is possible in the distributed version.

Deadlines:

February 1: Deadline for submission of papers for SAGP at the Eastern Division 2013 and American Philological Association 2014

June 1: Deadline for submission of abstracts for SAGP/SSIPS (October).

August 1: Deadline for submission of papers for SAGP at the Central and Pacific Divisions, February and March 2014.

February 1, 2014: Deadline for submission of papers for SAGP at the Eastern Division and American Philological Association, 2014/15.

These deadlines reflect the necessity for a month turnaround to the Program Committee and some time to put the program together. Submitters should expect a response about six weeks after each of the deadline dates. The members of the Program Committee are: the President (Richard McKirahan) and Secretary (A. Preus), ex officio; Deborah Modrak, Elizabeth Asmis, Fred Miller, Mark Wheeler, and Thomas M. Robinson.

Society Web Site:

We are pleased to announce that the SAGP Web Site is functioning well, thanks to our Webmaster, Chris Tennberg. The URL is <<http://www.societyforancientgreekphilosophy.com/>>. It appears quickly on Google.
