SAGP Newsletter 2014/15.3 Pacific

Anthony Preus
You are cordially invited to the 2015 meeting of the Society for Ancient Greek Philosophy with the Pacific Division of the American Philosophical Association, in Vancouver BC: Apr. 1-5
Chair: Mark Wheeler, San Diego State University
Adriel Trott, Wabash College, “‘Not Slavery, but Salvation’: Aristotle on Constitution and Government”
Anthony DeBonis, Yale University, “Another Stab at Inclusivism: Happiness in the Nicomachean Ethics”
John Thorp, University of Western Ontario, “Saving Aristotle’s Categories”

This is the short version, going out to the whole list. If you didn’t get the papers in a separate email message, you might not be a current member. Easy enough to join up!

SAGP DUES
Dues for electronic receipt of the papers are $10 per year US. Dues for hard copy receipt of papers are $20 per year US. Make out your check to SAGP. We honor multi-year dues payments. Those who do not have a US funds checking account are especially encouraged to pay by credit card, since that avoids bank charges. A credit card form is attached at the end of this Newsletter.

SAGP Speaker Policy
The Society for Ancient Greek Philosophy sponsors sessions with the annual meetings of the Eastern, Central, and Pacific Divisions of the American Philosophical Association, and the annual meeting of the Society for Classical Studies. There is also an annual meeting with the Society for the Study of Islamic Philosophy and Science and other groups. Occasionally the SAGP meets with various other societies. Those wishing to present a paper at any meeting of the SAGP are requested to contact apreus@binghamton.edu. Membership in SAGP is required for consideration of papers by the SAGP program committees.

Submitters of papers for the meetings with the APA or SCS should make their email message the “title page” of their submission, including their name, address, academic affiliation, and the title of the paper. Include in the email message the meeting or meetings of the Society at which they would like, or be willing, to present the paper. Attach the paper, prepared for blind (anonymous) review, in “.doc”, “.docx”, or “.rtf” – NOT PDF! The paper may include “real Greek” if it is in a Unicode font. The Program Committee has decided that papers submitted by authors who have had a paper accepted by the Society for presentation at a meeting of the American Philosophical Association or the Society for Classical Studies during the past year should not be considered. The Program Committee has requested that submissions be limited to 3000 words MAX, and suggests that submissions less than 1000 words are too short to be evaluated effectively. Accepted papers may be revised up to a max of 5000 words for distribution. Address any questions about this process to apreus@binghamton.edu.

Deadlines:
June 1: Deadline for submission of abstracts for SAGP/SSIPS (October).
August 1: Deadline for submission of papers for SAGP at the Central and Pacific Divisions, February and March 2016.

These deadlines reflect the necessity for a month turnaround to the Program Committee and some time to put the program together. Submitters should expect a response about six weeks after each of the deadline dates. The members of the Program Committee are: the President (Richard McKirahan) and Secretary (A. Preus), ex officio; Deborah Modrak, Elizabeth Asmis, Fred Miller, Mark Wheeler, and Thomas M. Robinson.

FORDHAM UNIVERSITY

An International Conference on Ancient and Medieval Philosophy

The 33rd annual joint meeting of the Society for Ancient Greek Philosophy (SAGP) with the Society for the Study of Islamic Philosophy (SSIPS)

Friday, October 23 - Sunday, October 25, 2015
Fordham University, Lincoln Center, 113 W. 60th St. New York, NY10023
Including the annual meetings of scholarly societies in the history of ancient, medieval, and Asian philosophy

SAGP and SSIPS invite the submission of abstracts for conference papers to be presented at their annual meeting at Fordham University. We invite paper, panel, and roundtable submissions from faculty, graduate students, and independent scholars, although all speakers on panels sponsored by SAGP must be dues-paying members of the Society for Ancient Greek Philosophy. We especially encourage panel and roundtable proposals. Proposals for panel or roundtable discussions are due by MAY 18, 2015; proposals for individual papers are due by JUNE 1, 2015.

In addition, we invite papers in memory of John Anton on the Aristotelian and Platonic tradition on the following topics:

- Education and Politics
- Technological/professional education vs humanistic studies
- What is “Human Excellence”?
- Friendship and Humility
- The συνετος βιος
- Classical aesthetics - modern epistemology
- The Notion of friendship in Aristotle and the good citizen.

Panel (and roundtable) proposals
Please download the form at https://sites.google.com/site/pjmooneyphil/home/sagp-papers and submit to Patrick Mooney (pmooney@jcu.edu) no later than May 18. Note that presenters on panels and roundtables will need to submit abstracts of their papers, using the individual paper proposal link below, by June 1.

Individual paper proposals
Please download the form at https://sites.google.com/site/pjmooneyphil/home/sagp-papers and submit to Patrick Mooney (pmooney@jcu.edu) no later than June 1. Include an abstract of no more than 500 words.

John Anton panels
For papers submitted to panels in memory of John Anton, please use the appropriate form mentioned above and submit BOTH to Patrick Mooney, as specified elsewhere in this CFP, AND to Aphrodite Alexandrakis, Barry University and University of Miami, aalexandrakis@barry.edu, by May 18.

Questions?
If you have questions about the conference, the submission forms, or about the Ancient Greek and philosophy panels, contact Patrick Mooney (pmooney@jcu.edu). For questions concerning other panels, contact:
