Citro: I Never Intend To, How 'Bout You?

I NEVER INTEND TO, HOW 'BOUT YOU?

Christopher Citro

It's eight o'clock. Time to plug the ladder in. I love our new ladder, the way it glows bright blue when the juice is flowing. I agree with you: our friends are no use to us anymore. I left a message on the machine saying, "Hello. Thanks for calling the so and so residence. Please don't do it again, though." Hopefully, that'll do the trick. I hate being interrupted when we're watching the ladder. The way it glows there, propped up in the corner... It's like it was made to be here in our house shining all night long just so we can sit and watch and tell each other all the different things we imagine we'd reach if we climbed it.
