Moyer: Travel

TRAVEL

Linda Lancione Moyer

The desire to focus on what's good, a whole Veneto of green-eyed abundance—necklaces, corn, vineyards and boney fish, more than enough of everything,
and what are you doing even thinking of it?
Somewhere there's the quiet cool room you've longed for since you were a child, this room, where you can just be, girl or boy, pig or typewriter.
I know you don't want to hear this, but the marshes will be more appealing than Naples or Capri, go to the marsh where the solitary blue heron watches, unseen and permanent, blackening at night into its secret feathers.
